

Place and Event:

Exploring Methods of Transformative Research

Conference and workshop at Foldsae, Norway, May 21st - 24th 2010

PROGRAMME:

Friday 21/05 Getting into: place and event

19 00: Arrival and supper

20 00: Introduction to the workshop: Place and event

Where do we come from? What do we bring? We co-create a map.

«Place as becoming» by Professor David Crouch.

Saturday 22/05 Exploring: place and event

08 30 Breakfast

09 30 Workshop groups I: Sue Reed and David Crouch, II: Rigmor Haugen Jensen and Aksel Hugo

III: Eli Beate Hestnes and Torbjørn Eftestøl.

12 00 Lunch

13 30 Continuation workshop groups

17 00 Dinner

18 30 Sharing of group work to plenary (group II)

19 30 Sharing from group III: An improvised performance of sounds and pictures

20 30 Light evening meal

Sunday 23/05 Celebrating: Whitsun and Campus Foldsae

09 00 Breakfast

10 00 Whitsun and place – celebration.

13 00 Lunch

14 00 Walk in the landscape, sharing the work of group I

15 00 Work in the woods. The participators of the forest seminar have prepared some tasks which we all (those who want) may take part in.

17 30 Dinner and celebration.

20 00 Concert with classical and modern music. Torbjørn Eftestøl (Piano) and Kaja Aadne (Cello)

Monday 24/05 Harvesting: Methods of transformative research

08 30: Breakfast

09 30: Individual writing workshop: describing the method we have been developing

10 30: Plenum: reading individual texts, co-shaping a common text on method

12 00 Lunch and departure